

Know God, Know Self, Know Others

Life is filled with challenges! We have problems to solve, risks to take and relationships we must build. We face many mountains to climb. The most challenging mountains are the ones inside of us! We best serve ourselves and others by looking forward in hope, not backward in fear because of disappointments in the past. To succeed we must have knowledge. When its applied, knowledge transforms into wisdom. Wisdom is key and with it comes understanding that leads to future successful outcomes! Wisdom is more precious than rubies and more profitable than gold! To be truly successful in life we must prevail in three vital areas... In Know God, Know Self, Know Others, Christopher Carter leads you on an adventure of poignant self discovery, illuminating insights and inspiring illustrations for developing the craft of living a meaningful life.
