

Corporate Social Responsibility in China (Globethics.net China Ethics) (Volume 1) (Chinese Edition)

As an international academic institution of the University of International Business and Economics (UIBE), the Center of International Business Ethics (CIBE) is committed to the research and extension of Corporate Social Responsibility. CIBE has launched this annual Collegiate CSR Essay Competition since 2007, more than 10,000 groups of college students participated, and a number of winners won the scholarship to study abroad, published papers in magazines, internship opportunities and so on. This collection consists of 15 papers from the winning papers of the fifth and sixth round of the Competition, published by CIBE's partner in Switzerland, the Globethics.net. The topics covers: Environmental Protection, Administration Ethics, Supply Chain Management, Consumer Rights, Labor Protection, Charity Innovation, Management, and so on. Hope to inspire more organizations and individuals involvement to CSRs practice and study, to attract more youths participation, and to contribute to the sustainable development of the economy and the society.
