Front cover illustration shows a young girl seated on a very tall chair with large knitting needles. Below her two cats play with her yarn. How to instruction book which introduces new yarns and diamond wound balls, made available to customers through recent inventions. The vogue of sweaters need hardly be emphasized. Of only slightly less importance is the section give to kimonos and scarfs....You will find in the present edition a number of designs that combine novelty and utility. The introduction also mentions the European connections of the design department. Photos of stylish female models introduce the stiching instructions. There are also sections on afghans and childrens garments. Original issue, not a reproduction.
