

From the Other Side of the Desk: A Practical Guide to Shortening Your Job Search

If you're in the market for a new job, you're probably also in the market for some sage advice on how to polish up your skills and differentiate yourself from the competition. From the Other Side of the Desk: A Practical Guide to Shortening Your Job Search by longtime hiring manager-turned-career coach Jay D. Fusaro tells readers the tough but inspiring truth: job offers are hard to get, but with carefully crafted tools and a whole lot of preparation, everyone can learn the skills they need to get a new job, and in less time than it usually takes. Jay's comprehensive advice applies to new college grads, displaced workers, veterans as well as CEOs, people wanting to move up in their current company, and those who wish to apply for their dream job in a brand new field. From the personal introduction to the playbook, from the bio to the resume, from the interview to the offer, this book conveys the essential skills, tools, and techniques required to land the opportunity you seek.
