

Soncino Mishnah Seder Zeraim (Soncino Babylonian Talmud Book 2)

Zeraim (Seeds), the name given to the first of the six Orders into which the Talmud is divided, deals principally with the agricultural laws of the Torah in both their religious and social aspects. It sets forth and elaborates the Biblical precepts relating to the rights of the poor and of the priests and Levites to the produce of the harvest, as well as the rules and regulations which concern the tillage, cultivation and sowing of fields, gardens and orchards. These laws are digested in ten tractates, each of which deals with a separate aspect of the general subject which gives the Order its name. To them is prefixed the Tractate Berakoth, which has for its theme the daily prayers and worship of the Jew. The Order comprises 11 tractates, arranged in the separate printed editions of the Mishnah in the following sequence: 1. BERAKOTH (Benedictions): Deals with the prayer and worship of Israel; the regulations relating to the main components of the daily prayers; and the forms of thanksgiving or grace to be recited over food and on sundry occasions. 9 Chapters. (In a separate volume of this Kindle series.) 2. PEAH (Corner): Treats of the laws of the corners of the field which must be left to the poor and other dues assigned to them in accordance with Lev. XIX, 9f; XXIII, 22; and Deut. XXIV, 19-21. 8 Chapters. 3. DEMAI (Doubtful): Treats of produce concerning which there is a doubt whether or not the tithes have been set aside from it. 7 Chapters. 4. KILAYIM (Mixtures): Deals with the prohibition of mixture in plants, animals and garments set forth in Lev. XIX, 19, and Deut. XXII, 9-11. 9 Chapters. 5. SHEBIITH (Seventh): Discusses the regulations concerning the rest to be given to the land and the release of debts in the sabbatical year (Shemittah). See Ex. XVIII, 11; Lev. XXV, 2-7; and Deut. XV, 1-11. 10 Chapters. 6. TERUMOTH (Heave Offerings): Sets forth the laws regarding the portion of the harvest assigned to the priest in accordance with Num. XVIII 12. 11 Chapters. 7. MAASEROTH (Tithes): Has for its theme the first tithe which must be given annually to the Levite from the produce of the harvest according to Lev. XXVII, 30-33; and Num. XVIII, 21-24. 5 Chapters. 8. MAASER SHENI (Second Tithe): Details the rules of the second tithe set aside in the first, second, fourth and sixth years of the septennate in accordance with Deut. XIV, 22ff. 5 Chapters. 9. HALLAH (Dough): Deals with the rules concerning the portion of the dough which must be given to the priest. See Num. XV, 20-21. 4 Chapters. 10. ORLAH (Uncircumcision, sc. of trees): Deals with the prohibition of the use of the fruit of the young trees during the first three years, and the rules for its treatment in the fourth year. See Lev. XIX, 23-24. 3 Chapters. 11. BIKKURIM (First Fruits): Gives the regulations concerning the offering of the first fruits in the Temple (see Deut. XXVI, Iff.), and includes an account of the accompanying ceremony. 3 Chapters.
