

You Set Your Own Limits

This book is the result of conversations that my rabbit Spot and I conducted. Spot is a Philosopher. He calls a huge knowledge his own and has, just like so many other animals, access to the great knowledge of life. When I decided in 1998 to hear animals again (as a child everyone can do so), Spot told me that he is a Philosopher - but back then I would have never dreamed of all the things I could learn from him, let alone to write a book.
