

Marketing Your Jewellery Business: How to get more Customers

I am so pleased that you have picked this book to help you on your exciting business journey. Running a business is a mix of emotions, highs and lows, hard work, commitment, its draining and intense, but it is also the most exciting, freeing, liberating and exhilarating activity and adventure you can ever embark on. Working for yourself, being your own boss, it doesnt get any better than that. This book (and others in the series) have been written to accompany you on your journey and contain solid, tried and tested ideas, activities and tasks, that you can follow right away to make your business a success. We present examples that we have used in our own business to illustrate marketing methods that work. Methods that get you more customers and make you money. Now please do not think these will be quick, get rich quick style methods. This book is real. This book is based on our real business and real results. You need to commit to hard work, requiring you to be consistent, dedicated and proactive for it to work. If you can commit to this (which I know you can) and the methods in this book, then you will see positive results and you will see your business grow and grow.
