Transformational Tools for Your Life and Business The phrase, When life gives you lemons, make lemonade never meant so much to Laura Cole Gonzalez until she was diagnosed with an extreme health challenge and was debilitated for 7 months. In this best selling book, Healthy Business, Healthy You Toolbox, Laura shares with us the pain and struggle she endured while trying to overcome her health challenges and manage her own business. She faced the most difficult battle of her life with no known books or business courses that associated her business success with your own health.
