

The Faces of Alexander & the City with 7 Gates

The idea of the city with seven gates appeared in the year 2000 in Skopje. D'Vincic Sisters were saddened by the lack of the lively spirits. They yearned for the exit of the everyday life filled with limitations and routines. They had no inspiration, nor conscious decisions with which they could control their thoughts, energy and focus. Individual growth for them has been put aside, without their awareness or conscious. They didn't feel alive any more, like they were in a hopeless situation, a dead end, unable to see the wounded inner child, child who was buried and long forgotten. Their emotional tubes were emptied but they were still not ready to face that fact. On the enlightenment journey, the Sisters gained courage and inspiration from a great hero. He succeeded to open the gate of the huge stone head and killed the evil wizard with his spear. There is a legend about this hero strongly connected to the name of Macedonians capital - Skopje. His name was 16 unknown to the people and that's why he was called He with the spear translated in Macedonian, Skopje. The Sisters unconditionally believe that this legend leads to enlightenment, hence they present an interpretation of it. Seven images symbolically represent the Gates and at the same time symbolically the seven openings of the stone head. By opening the gates with the spear, the hero regains all the senses and makes it powerful and conscious once again.
