

The Potter of Pano Arhanes

Each trip I made to the pottery workshop in Pano Arhanes increased my fascination and love for the various artistic expressions and forms created by the potter-sculptor. I purchased several of her more utilitarian fired-clay products for use as props and serving pieces in my food photography work - ref: <http://greekfood.about.com/>. On my last visit, a few days before returning to the USA, I obtained the potters permission to do a photographic study of her workshop and one of her in process works. This book contains many of the photos, in 7x10 color format, of that photo session.
