

Late Roman Pottery at Amarna and Related Studies (Excavation Memoirs)

by J Faiers with contributions from Sarah Clarkson, Barry Kemp, Gillian Pyke and Richard Reece The pottery in this volume comes from the site of Kom el-Nana, in the area around Amarna, and was collected between 1988 and 1997. It is all of Late Roman date, and most was retrieved from rubbish pits. The site of Kom el-Nana itself has been identified as a monastery, a fact which affects the way the pottery - and all other finds - must be interpreted.
