Weavings - A journal of the Christian spiritual life is published by Upper Room Ministries. The Upper Room is sponsored by The United Methodist Church. Weavings journal is a bi-monthly publication that seeks to promote informed, committed spiritual growth, growth, to which laity and clergy alike are called, embraces all those expressions of discipline and discipleship that mark the Christians response to Gods work of weaving together the torn fabric of life. Weavings invites participation in the spiritual life, seeking to provide a forum in which our life in the world and the spiritual resources of the Christian heritage can encounter and illuminate one another. The journal strives to create a space in which contributors and readers can converse on important matters of common concern. Organized by themes, each issue presents a broad range of materials.
