

From Corporate to Creative: Finding and Unleashing Your Authentic Self In Your Creative Business - Interview with Allison Crow (From Corporate to Creative with Kelly Galea Book 34)

Career change is a BIG DEAL. Stepping in to your Soul-Work is to be honored. While the actual outer change may happen quickly, the inner changes happen in layers over time, ultimately revealing your true authentic self. These patterns take time to unfold, and learning to recognize and embrace them can not only boost your business, but fill your heart with genuine happiness. Join host Kelly Galea with guest Allison Crow for this episode of From Corporate to Creative where we talk about:- 3 energies. Victimhood, Defending, and Allowing- Some of the hidden phases you may encounter along your path- What to do when they hit Allison Crow, is a speaker, writer, intuitive life coach, and teacher. A goddess of color, creativity, and unashamed moxie, Allison adores alignment, authenticity, creativity, connection, & balance. In 2010, after years of teaching, training, and coaching in traditional corporate positions, she took a grand leap of faith, trusted the promptings she was getting from the Universe, and started her creative visual thinking company alongside her coaching practice. Allison helps highachieving, soulcentered, visionary women activate their gifts and truth to create SOULFULL lives by focusing primarily on the inner work of energetic alignment and beliefs. Allison is Texas native, lives in Austin with her husband and three dogs, Leroy Brown, Daisy Mae and Lulu, and she makes it a habit to play and nap as much as possible. You can find Allison online at www.allisoncrow.com.
