The Kohens Handbook: A Complete Guide to Help Todays Kohen Maintain His Spiritual Distinction

The Kohens unique status in Jewish life, the respect that is his due, and the obligation to guard his purity are unknown large numbers of otherwise to knowledgeable Jews., This is a step-by-step guide with photographs, deeper-look boxes, brief illustrations, stories, and real life examples that identify common problems and offer practical solutions to the halachic issues faced by as many as one in ten Jews today. include: When and how must a kohen visit an cemetery? What precautions should be taken when visiting a hospital? On which roads is a kohen forbidden to travel? How must a kohen deal with flying on an airplane? How must one honor a kohen? The authors established the International Taharas Hakohanim organization. Leading halachic authorities have endorsed the Hebrew edition on which this book is based.
