

SDS New Left Notes: Vol. 2, No. 3: January 20, 1967

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was a student activist movement in the United States that was one of the main representations of the New Left. The organization developed and expanded rapidly in the mid-1960s before dissolving at its last convention in 1969. Their underground newspaper, New Left Notes, was the main source of correspondence to other members.
