

Three Gold Bezants, Three Silver Stars: The Arms of the Grolier Club 1884-1984 (Grolier fine printing)

A century of Grolier Club seals as presented in Club publications and ex libris, designed by some of the great names in American bookmaking, many printed from original blocks or engraved plates in the Grolier archives. Among the designers represented are: Joseph Blumenthal, T.M. Cleland, Theodore Low De Vinne, W.A. Dwiggins, George Wharton Edwards, Edwin Dean French, Jerry Kelly, Fritz Kredel, Le Roux de Lincy, Howard Pyle, Bruce Rogers (four devices), William Edwin Rudge, Rudolph Ruzicka, and D.B. Updike. An essay by Kit Currie analyses Jean Groliers coat of arms. With three tipped in specimens: an original 1894 Edwards bookplate, a three-color bookplate designed by Jerry Kelly, and an intaglio print (restrike) of E.D. Frenchs elaborate plate. Grolier Club Fine Printing, New Series No. 2. Designed by Jerry Kelly, printed with Hermann Zapfs Renaissance Roman type on Arches paper at the Stinehour Press, in an edition of 240 copies.
