

Tale Spinning

A collection of short stories by an author who has a unique way of looking at life and finding the right words to express a vivid image of the scene and unforgettable characters. Fat Albert is an award-winning story about a fisherman who catches a ride he will never forget. The Great Train Robbery, also an award-winning story, looks at two hobos who admire Jesse James and plan to rob a train in Key West. A Fish Tail is the story of a teenage boy battling a blue marlin during a fishing tournament. The collection includes fourteen stories.
