

Women in Uniform: 1939-1945 (Militaria Guides)

The participation of women in the second global conflict is often forgotten, yet thousands of them were in uniform, in the traditional framework of the health service, but also in services, so necessary of the male combat units. The movement started on a large scale in Great Britain and in the Soviet Union, was followed by the United States and to a lesser extent by France, Germany and Italy. Over fifty images of volunteers from almost all countries are illustrated in color on live models in to show the patriotism of these young women. This guide will be essential to all lovers of uniforms, collectors, modelers and military history enthusiasts. For connoisseurs, it will also be the opportunity to discover rare outfits, original or even unique, preserved by collectors.
